

I cannot begin to express how strongly I feel about the possibility that commercial airlines might allow cell phone use on flights. The net result would be noise pollution in airline cabins that would be totally unacceptable. This should NOT be allowed to happen!! I do not want to pay money to be seated next to or anywhere near someone yelling into a phone and have no means of escape. Please, I beg of you, do not allow this to happen.